

Ottawa Memorial Clock

Inscription:

To Those That Served
Lest We Forget
In memory of all veterans
who served

The Veteran's Memorial Clock was built in 1925. The memorial clock is a tribute to the service given by Putnam County men in World War I.

Marker is in Ottawa, Ohio, in Putnam County. Marker is at the intersection of Main Street (U.S. 224) and Hickory Street, on the left when traveling east on Main Street. Memorial clock is on the courthouse grounds.

